COMMISSIONING SERVICES

Presbyterian Youth Triennium

The Presbyterian Youth Triennium is an event sponsored by the Presbyterian Church (USA) and the Cumberland Presbyterian Churches (CPC and CPCA) for the purpose of gathering Presbyterian and Reformed young people from all over the world together for worship, prayer, play and community. The theme for 2010 “For Such a Time as This” is an encouragement for young people to be courageous, to be faithful and to be attentive to God and in the Presbyterian Church to be aware of their call to act as agents of healing, hope and holy transformation in this world and in this church! All youth, adult advisors, work crew members and small group leaders who will be attending were commissioned.

“The Denver Anti-Racism and Reconciliation Team aims to confront racism by introspection; by raising awareness and educating ourselves and others; by acting in ways that create a household of God, inclusive and united by our universal need for God’s mercy, grace, and love.”

The Assembly honored DARRT for their ministry of moving us toward the Beloved Community so that we might live in God’s kingdom on earth, with peace, joy and love for all.
