

WHEATRIDGE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH INTERIM PASTOR

Wheatridge Presbyterian Church (WPC) is searching for a dynamic outgoing interim pastor who is able to give thoughtful spiritual sermons based on Scripture and relate those lessons to daily challenges. The candidate must be a leader with a sense of humor and vitality to connect with the congregation and bring it unity. The candidate must be able to connect with children, support and guide the children's program, plus have innovative ideas for growing WPC's congregational numbers and targeting younger families. The candidate must have sensitivity towards older members who are less mobile with a personal priority to care for them spiritually and also have a respect for tradition in our Sunday services. The candidate must thrive on personal contact, be caring with a sense of humor and not be afraid to bestow a personal touch upon the church family. Dossiers for this position may be sent by e-mail to: wrpcipsc@yahoo.com